

Quem tem Banrisul tem tudo.

Banrisul receives award at the opening day of the 6th Expo Money fair

Banrisul took the spotlight at the opening of the sixth edition of Expo Money, yesterday (September 17) in São Paulo. The Chief Financial and Investor Relations Officer of Banrisul, Ricardo Hingel, received the 'Respect to Individual Investors' award for the Bank's participation in previous editions of the event - the largest in Latin America for financial education and investments.

Expo Money is a circuit of events comprising free lectures and exhibitions, targeted at those interested in learning about personal finance strategies and investment options. This year, 11 events are being held in which 80,000 people are expected to participate.