6. GUIDELINES:

6.1. Profits and their allocations:

6.1.1. Shareholders will be entitled to receive as mandatory dividends, in each fiscal year, a percentage equivalent to twenty-five percent (25%) of net income for the fiscal year, which will be adjusted based on the following rules:

- I. The following amounts will be deducted from or added to net income for the year:
  - (a) five percent (5%) for the legal reserve, up to the limit provided for in Brazilian Corporate Law, noting that the company is exempt from recognizing this legal reserve in the fiscal year in which its balance plus the legal reserve amounts related to paragraph 1 of article 182, of Law 6,404/76 exceeds thirty percent (30%) of the capital stock; and
  - (b) the amount for the contingency reserve, based on a proposal of the Board of Directors, and the reversal of this reserve recognized in previous fiscal years;
- II. pursuant to the deductions in item I above, from the dividend amount to be paid that is the object of this article, the amount necessary for the payment of a fixed dividend (six percent) of 6% p.a. will be deducted first, related to the class A preferred shares, calculated based on the ratio resulting from the division of the capital stock by the number of shares of the capital stock (article 8 of the Bylaws);
- III. pursuant to the previous items, if there is a remaining balance, the company will pay a dividend amount for class B preferred shares and common shares, which cannot be higher than the dividend amount of paid to class A preferred shares; and
- IV. upon completion of payment of the dividend amounts referred to in the previous items, if there are any remaining funds reserved for dividends, they will be distributed among all shareholders, with preferred and common shares participating on equal conditions, pursuant to item ii of article 8 (eight) of the Bylaws.

Sole paragraph: Additionally, the Executive Board may, with the consent of the Board of Directors, at its prudent discretion and whenever the Company's interest recommends, submit to the Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting the dividend payment at a percentage higher than that described in the caput, observing the Company's capital structure and all other statutory and legal regulations for dividend payment, taking into consideration:

- (i) the Company's level of capitalization in accordance with the rules of the Central Bank of Brazil; and
- (ii) the minimum level of 14.5% of tier 1 capital defined by the Board of Directors.

6.1.2. The Company will maintain a reserve for investments in the IT department, which may absorb up to twenty-five percent (25%) of net income for each fiscal year, based on a proposal made by the Board of Directors, up to the limit of seventy percent (70%) of the paid-up capital stock.

6.1.3. Without prejudice to articles 78-82 of these Bylaws, the Board of Directors may request the preparation of a balance sheet and the payment of dividends for periods of less than six (6) months, provided that total dividend amount paid in each six-month period does not exceed the capital reserve amount.

Sole paragraph – The Executive Board, with the consent of the Board of Directors and the Fiscal Council, may, at its prudent discretion and whenever the Company's interest recommends, declare interim dividends for periods of less than six months based on the retained earnings or profit reserves of the last half-yearly balance sheet, pursuant to all other statutory and legal regulations on dividend payment.

6.1.4. The amount of interest paid or credited as interest on equity, pursuant to paragraph 7, of article 9, of Law 9,249/95 and pertinent legislation and regulation, may be imputed to the mandatory dividend amount, being included in the dividend amount paid by the company for all legal purposes.

7. PAYMENT METHOD

7.1. The Company will pay interest on equity on a quarterly basis, and the amounts will be credited to shareholders by the last business day of the respective quarter in which interest on equity was declared.

7.2. The Policy sets out that credits will be made as follows:

- to shareholders whose shares are deposited on Bolsa - Brasil, Bolsa, Balcão, through their institutions and/or brokerage firms where their shareholding positions are held in custody; and
- to shareholders whose shares are held in custody by Banrisul, the amounts may be credited to their current accounts or be available for withdrawal at Banrisul branches.

7.3. Interest on equity and dividend amounts expire pursuant to current legislation, based on the date on which they are made available to shareholders.

7.4. The payment of dividend and/or interest on equity amounts will be announced through a Material Facts made available on the websites of CVM, B3 S.A. and on the Investor Relations website of Banrisul S.A., as well as on relevant news portals, pursuant to the Company's resolution.
